Serious incidents

The Charity Commission requires charities to report serious incidents.

Serious Incidents

A serious incident is an adverse event, whether actual or alleged, which results in or risks significant:

- loss of your charity's money or assets
- damage to your charity's property
- harm to your charity's work, beneficiaries or reputation

The main categories of reportable incidents are:

- financial crimes - fraud, theft and money laundering
- large donations from an unknown or unverifiable source, or suspicious financial activity using the charity's funds
- other significant financial loss
- links to terrorism or extremism, including 'proscribed' organisations, individuals subject to an asset freeze, or kidnapping of staff
- suspicions, allegations or incidents of abuse or mistreatment involving beneficiaries or others in connection with the activities of the charity
- other significant incidents, such as - insolvency, forced withdrawal of banking services or actual/suspected criminal activity

Please read the guidance on GOV.UK for further details about the types of incidents that should be reported under each of these categories.

If a reportable incident occurs within your charity, you should report this to the Commission promptly. This means as soon as is reasonably possible after it happens, or immediately after you become aware of it.

Privacy Notice

This privacy notice explains how the Charity Commission processes personal data when a charity completes the annual return service including uploading the charity's accounts and trustee annual report.

The charity's accounts and trustees' annual report are published in full on the Commission's website. In completing the annual return 18 (AR18) Service, your charity will be processing personal data and in some instances personal data which is special category personal data. This personal data may be processed in response to the question set in the AR 18 Service or it may be included in the accounts and trustees' annual report. Some personal data is required to be included by SORP but other personal data may be included because it is relevant to the charity's financial performance or governance such as the names and other personal data about trustees, employees, donors, volunteers and beneficiaries.

The charity as the data controller is responsible for ensuring that its response in the AR18 service and the accounts and trustees' annual report meet its obligations under the General Data Protection Regulations 2016 and the Data Protection Act 2018 for all the personal data processed. You will need to take particular care if you are including personal data about children, adults at risk, special category personal data or your charity's trustees have a dispensation from including their name in the accounts.

By continuing to upload the accounts you certify that you have read this privacy notice and are authorised by the charity trustees to submit information.

The files you attach must be in PDF format.

You must attach a complete set of accounts which is comprised of the Trustees' Annual Report, accounts and appropriate independent examiners' / auditor's report.

Any information you give us will be held securely and processed only in accordance with the rules on data protection. We will not disclose your personal details to anyone unconnected to the Charity Commission unless:

- you have consented to their release; or
- we are legally obliged to disclose them; or
- we regard disclosure as either (a) necessary so that we can properly carry out our statutory functions or (b) necessary in the public interest.

We may share and disclose information about you with relevant public authorities, regulatory bodies and agencies, outside the Charity Commission but only if:

- we can lawfully do so; and
- we decide that disclosure is necessary for national security, crime detection, prevention, and law enforcement, or other issues in the public interest

Information we collect about you

We will use this information:

To enable us to carry out our statutory functions and duties;

This will include the following actions:

- (a) update, consolidate, and improve the accuracy of our records;
- (b) undertake crime detection and prevention and law enforcement and assist the third parties specified above to investigate or prevent crime and carry out law enforcement;
- (c) data analysis, testing, research, statistical and survey purposes

Information we receive from other sources.

Information we receive from other sources

We may combine this information with information you give to us and information we collect about you. We may use this information and the combined information for the purposes set out above (depending on the types of information we receive).

We will ensure that any such disclosure and use is proportionate; considers your right to respect for your private life; and is done fairly and lawfully in accordance with the data protection principles of the Data Protection Act.

The Data Protection Act 1998 regulates the use of 'personal data', which is essentially any information, however stored, about identifiable living individuals. As a 'data controller' under the Act, the Charity Commission must comply with it.

Any changes we may make to our privacy statement in the future will be set out in the replacement version of this form. Please check back frequently to see any updates or changes to our privacy policy.

Check your annual return

Before you complete the declaration and submit the annual return, you should check the content and accuracy of the information you have provided. You can also save or print a copy for your records.
