

Ascension Church Peacehaven

Ascension Church is a welcoming Church of England congregation in Peacehaven (near Brighton), a family of different people “following Jesus together.” The church meets every Sunday at 10:00am, with a mix of service styles across the month, including Holy Communion on the 1st and 3rd Sundays, Morning Praise on the 2nd, and an all-age Family Service on the 4th (plus Breakfast Praise when there’s a 5th Sunday). Children are very much included, with a Kids’ Club running during services.

Midweek, Ascension runs groups that build community and friendship, including the Tuesday Friendship Group (Tuesday mornings) for retired and semi-retired people to spend time together over games, puzzles and conversation in the church hall.

Ascension Church supports Children of the Dump, reflecting its commitment to practical compassion and long-term change. The congregation has helped raise funds through a coffee morning and tea party, generating enough donations to keep a Grapevine student in school for two years. The church’s Tuesday Friendship Group supports the charity by sponsoring a student, deepening the connection through ongoing encouragement and giving.
