Project: Cashew Tree Programme

Name: Althea

Age: 4 years old

Location: Payatas, Quezon City

Education and Development

Althea, affectionately known as Thea, is a bright and cheerful 4-year-old currently attending the Cashew Tree Programme. She loves learning through play and interaction and shows strong curiosity and enthusiasm in everyday activities.

How Sponsorship Helps

Sponsorship will support Althea's early education at Cashew Tree, providing structured learning opportunities, educational materials, nutritious meals, and a safe environment where she can grow and thrive during her early years.

Family Background

Althea lives with her parents and brothers in Payatas, Quezon City. Her father works as a foam maker earning a modest daily income, while her mother is a full-time housewife caring for the family. Despite financial challenges, the family places strong importance on education and nurturing their children.

Personality and Interests

Althea is a lively, affectionate, and expressive child. She enjoys dancing, especially copying popular TikTok dance moves, loves the colour pink, and enjoys eating pancit. Her cheerful personality and curiosity make her a joy to be around.
