

Student Sponsorship Bio

Project: Cashew Tree Programme

Name: Alonzo

Age: 4 years old

Location: Payatas, Quezon City

Education and Development

Alonzo, known as Enzo, is a cheerful and energetic 4-year-old attending the Cashew Tree Programme. He enjoys learning through play, music, and interaction, and shows curiosity and enthusiasm in everyday activities.

How Sponsorship Helps

Sponsorship will support Alonzo's early education at Cashew Tree by providing structured learning, educational materials, nutritious meals, and a safe environment that supports his development during these important early years.

Family Background

Alonzo lives with his parents and older brother in Payatas, Quezon City. His father works in building maintenance earning a modest monthly income, while his mother is a full-time housewife caring for the family. Despite financial and health challenges, the family places strong importance on education and wellbeing.

Personality and Interests

Alonzo is friendly, playful, and full of life. He loves dancing to music, playing with friends, and enjoys healthy foods such as fruits and vegetables. Living with asthma, he shows resilience and positivity, supported by his caring family.
