

Student Sponsorship Bio

Project: Cashew Tree Programme

Name: Ace Rayver

Age: 4 years old

Location: Rodriguez, Rizal

Education and Development

Ace Rayver is a lively and curious 4-year-old attending the Cashew Tree Programme. He shows promising early learning skills, including tracing letters and identifying colours, demonstrating readiness for structured learning.

How Sponsorship Helps

Sponsorship will support Ace's early education at Cashew Tree by providing structured learning activities, educational materials, nutritious meals, and a safe environment that supports his development.

Family Background

Ace lives with his parents and siblings in Rodriguez, Rizal. His father works as a delivery helper earning a modest monthly income, while his mother is a full-time housewife caring for the children. Despite financial pressures, the family remains committed to their children's education and wellbeing.

Personality and Interests

Ace is energetic, cheerful, and eager to learn. He enjoys tracing letters, learning colours, and engaging in play. Living with asthma and a seafood allergy, he shows resilience and positivity, supported by his attentive family.
