Age: 6 years old

Location: Payatas, Quezon City

Education and Aspirations

Kiarra Lavine is a cheerful and capable learner who completed her early education under the Cashew Tree programme with a final average grade of 89%. She shows strong early literacy skills and enjoys creative activities such as singing and dancing. Kiarra is now in Grade 1 and is eager to continue learning and developing her talents.

How Sponsorship Helps

Sponsorship through the Grapevine Programme will support Kiarra's continued education by helping with school fees, learning materials, and essential educational needs, enabling her to thrive academically and socially.

Family Background

Kiarra lives with her parents in Payatas, Quezon City, within a modest family home shared with extended relatives. Her father currently works as a data encoder earning a modest monthly income, while her mother is a full-time housewife. Despite financial challenges, the family places strong importance on education and long-term stability.

Personality and Interests

Kiarra is a happy, playful, and socially confident child. She enjoys outdoor play with relatives, creative expression through singing and dancing, and reading simple sentences independently. Her positive attitude and maturity reflect strong potential for future success.
