

Student Sponsorship Bio

Project: Cashew Tree Programme

Name: Jeana Rae

Age: 3 years old

Location: Payatas, Quezon City

Education and Development

Jeana Rae, affectionately known as Yana, is a bright and cheerful 3-year-old attending the Cashew Tree Programme. She shows strong early cognitive skills, including excellent memory, colour recognition, and familiarity with the alphabet.

How Sponsorship Helps

Sponsorship will support Jeana Rae's early education at Cashew Tree by providing structured learning, educational materials, nutritious meals, and a safe, nurturing environment during these crucial early years.

Family Background

Jeana Rae lives with her parents in Payatas, Quezon City. Her mother works as an office staff member and supports extended family, while her father works as a dishwasher. Despite limited income, the family provides a loving, stable, and encouraging home.

Personality and Interests

Jeana Rae is happy, curious, and affectionate. She enjoys learning new things and especially loves her favourite foods, eggs and spaghetti. Her lively personality and eagerness to learn show strong promise for the future.

