

Student Sponsorship Bio

Project: Cashew Tree Programme

Name: Aprl

Age: 4 years old

Location: Rodriguez, Rizal

Education and Development

Aprl, lovingly called Mili, is a cheerful and capable 4-year-old attending the Cashew Tree Programme. She shows strong early learning skills, including identifying colours and numbers and counting from 1 to 10. She follows instructions well and enjoys learning through play.

How Sponsorship Helps

Sponsorship will support Aprl's early education at Cashew Tree by providing structured learning activities, educational materials, nutritious meals, and a safe, nurturing environment during these formative years.

Family Background

Aprl lives with her mother and extended family in Rodriguez, Rizal. Her mother is a solo parent who receives support from grandparents and relatives. Despite challenges and limited financial support, the family provides a loving and stable home and values Aprl's education.

Personality and Interests

Aprl is sweet, active, and responsible for her age. She enjoys dancing to TikTok videos, playing with building blocks, and helping with simple household chores. Her cheerful personality and eagerness to learn show strong promise for the future.
