

Samphire Saltdean

Samphire Saltdean is a friendly, family-run café/bistro and bar on Saltdean High Street in Brighton. Whether you're popping in for a proper espresso coffee, a relaxed bite to eat, or something a little stronger, Samphire offers a warm welcome and an easy-going local atmosphere.

Open to everyone, Samphire serves a range of snacks, sandwiches and meals, with an all-day menu that's designed for simple, enjoyable dining—perfect for breakfast, lunch, or a casual meet-up with friends. Alongside the food and drink, it's also a genuine community hub, hosting regular events and social evenings that bring people together, from themed dinner nights to community entertainment.

Samphire Saltdean has also been a valued supporter of Children of the Dump, generously helping to raise funds through meat raffles and other raffle fundraising efforts. Their willingness to get behind the charity, encourage local participation, and actively champion fundraising in the community is sincerely appreciated. It's this kind of grassroots support—practical, consistent, and community-minded—that helps Children of the Dump continue providing education, care, and opportunity for children and families living in extreme poverty in Manila.

With great hospitality, a welcoming setting, and a strong community spirit, Samphire Saltdean is a local business that goes beyond serving customers—it helps support causes that matter.
