

The Fitton Trust

The Fitton Trust is a long-established grant-making charitable trust based in Bramhall, Stockport (Charity No. 208758).

Registered with the Charity Commission in 1965, the Trust exists to support legally charitable purposes by making grants to other charities and voluntary organisations. Operating across England & Wales and Scotland, it provides practical financial support to help charities deliver their work and reach people in need.

The Trust does not maintain its own public website and applications are typically made in writing, with trustees meeting several times each year to consider requests. Its postal contact address is PO Box 289, Bramhall, Stockport, SK7 0DZ.

By funding a wide range of charitable activity, the Fitton Trust helps strengthen the capacity of voluntary organisations and community initiatives—often through modest, targeted grants that can make a meaningful difference to day-to-day delivery. In doing so, the Trust plays a quiet but valuable role in supporting good causes across the UK and beyond, enabling charities to respond to local challenges, sustain essential services, and improve lives through their front-line work.
