

Children of the Dump – Student Sponsorship Bio

Project: Cashew Tree Programme

Name: Faith Stefhanny Grace Paclibar

Age: 4 years old

Location: Kasiglahan Village, Rodriguez, Rizal

Education and Development

Faith Stefhanny Grace is a bright and eager 4-year-old attending the Cashew Tree Programme. She is already showing promising early learning skills and can write letters at a young age. Excited about starting school, Faith enjoys discovering new things and approaches learning with enthusiasm and confidence.

How Sponsorship Helps

Sponsorship will support Faith's early education at Cashew Tree by providing structured learning opportunities, educational materials, nutritious meals, and a safe, nurturing environment.

Family Background

Faith lives with her parents in Kasiglahan Village, Rodriguez, Rizal. After the family's small convenience store closed during the COVID-19 pandemic, they rebuilt their lives and now live with relatives rent-free. Her father works as a waiter while her mother supplements the family income through online sales.

Personality and Interests

Faith is a well-mannered, respectful, and obedient child who has been raised with strong values. She enjoys riding her bicycle, dancing, and singing, and brings joy to those around her with her cheerful personality.
