

Children of the Dump – Student Sponsorship Bio

Project: Cashew Tree Programme

Name: Jayden Kyle Luis Galit

Age: 4 years old

Location: Kasiglahan Village, Rodriguez, Rizal

Education and Development

Jayden is a lively and curious 4-year-old attending the Cashew Tree Programme. He is beginning to recognise letters, numbers and shapes and shows a natural eagerness to learn as he prepares to start his educational journey.

How Sponsorship Helps

Sponsorship will support Jayden's early education through structured learning, educational materials, nutritious meals, and a safe environment where he can develop essential skills and confidence.

Family Background

Jayden lives with his parents in Kasiglahan Village. His father works as an on-call driver for a small family vegetable business while his mother cares for him full-time. Although the family faces financial challenges, they provide a loving and supportive home and place great importance on education.

Personality and Interests

Jayden is cheerful, playful and full of curiosity. As an only child, he enjoys exploring the world around him and benefits from the devoted care and encouragement of his parents. His enthusiasm for learning and positive nature give him a strong foundation for the future.
