

Student Sponsorship Bio

Project: Grapevine Programme

Name: Leila

Age: 14 years old

Location: Quezon City

Education and Development

When Leila joined Grapevine, she was an outstanding student with an average grade of 90% and had received an honours award. She was particularly strong in Maths and English. Educational support can help her continue developing her talents and work towards her future goals.

How Sponsorship Helps

Sponsorship will help Leila continue her education through the Grapevine Programme by contributing towards school-related costs, learning materials, nutritious meals, and the guidance she needs to remain engaged and confident in her studies.

Family Background

Leila comes from a hardworking family in Quezon City. Her mother has supported the household through street vending, laundry work, and caring for the family home. Limited resources have made educational expenses difficult, but her family remains determined to help Leila continue learning.

Personality and Interests

Leila is quiet, caring, and creative. She enjoys drawing and painting, especially sketching anime characters, and she helps her mother with simple household tasks. Her ambition is to become an architect, combining her artistic ability with her interest in creating and designing.
